Do nothing</li> <li>2. Close a middle school</li> <li>3. Dual immersion schools combine with Harvest to make up 1 school. Would cost $30 million to get k-3 at NVLA, close Pueblo Vista &amp; Harvest and put them at River.</li> </ol> Lisa Lombardi &amp; others have put together a task force to get K-8 at BV and have put forth that proposal to Dr Mucetti. "What does that scenario look like?" They want options that have zero cost. There's a for real declining enrollment issue. The District has vetted the school. "Wouldn't it take the kids from Harvest who aren't dual immersion?" Yes. 90 kids total. A sell for the parents would be a smaller school vibe "What about sending New Tech kids to River and selling New Tech?" Might not make financial sense There's a meeting coming up to craft message to Dr Mucetti of what the middle school at BV will look like
